Yeshiva of Ocean does not utilize an Ability to Benefit test for admitting students.

The first step in the application process is to arrange for a personal interview with the Rosh Yeshiva. Before being granted an interview, applicants are carefully vetted by contacting previous instructors and/or Rosh Yeshiva to make sure they will be a "good fit" to the yeshiva. After this vetting, if it is determined the student is a good candidate for the yeshiva he will then be interviewed and tested.

At the time of the interview, a member of the faculty will administer a thorough examination in Talmudic studies. The Registrar's office will also request transcripts of previous advanced study in other institutions and recommendations from faculty members at their previous schools of attendance.

The selection of applicants will be based upon their intellectual ability, academic preparation and personal ethical development. If accepted for enrollment, the applicant will then be asked to complete an admission form.
